Freemasons Lapel Pin

Wearing the square and compasses lapel pin is an outward sign to other brethren and acquaintances that a brother is a Freemason.

Lodges are encouraged to present a lapel badge to brethren on their initiation.

The lapel pin can be obtained by visiting the Freemasons NZ website at: http://freemasonsnz.org/, logging in as a member and going to the 'Form of Requisition'.