OPEN DAY SUNDAY 13 SEPTEMBER

On the Sunday prior to the Dedication of the new Westminster Lodge Room, which will take place on the afternoon of Thursday 17 September, an open day will be held to view the Lodge Room and to promote Freemasonry.

From 10am until 4pm the Wellesley Boutique Hotel, which is now owned by a group of Westminster Brethren, will be open to the public and all Freemasons and their friends and families are invited to come and inspect both the Hotel and the new Lodge Room. Maginnity's, the hotel's new bar and restaurant, will be open and serving a selection of food and beverages [own cost]. There is no other charge for this event.

The invitation is extended to all Lodges and this is an opportunity to bring friends and family members who may become prospects and, ultimately, Brethren of your Lodge. Material promoting the work of Freemasonry in New Zealand will be on display.

At 4pm, in the new Lodge Room, the District Grand Master, VW Bro Duane Williams MBE, will make a presentation to Victoria University Scholarship winners.
