Now It's Your Turn. Competition 1 Part 1

RW. Dog "Skip"

Meet RW. Dog Skip who is the pride and joy of the Divisional Grand Master RW. Bro Michael Hattie. The RW in Dog stands for "Really Wonderful" in case you are wondering.

How about you take a photo of your favourite dog and send it to the editor so we can publish it.? Please make sure that you include the dog's name plus you own name and Lodge so that it can be included with your photo.

Only one photo per dog please and we reserve the right to publish any or all of the photos we receive with credits as well.

Let's build a collection of our "Lodge" pets and share them with others while we are sitting indoors over the next few weeks. Cats, rabbits, birds et al.

Now It's Your Turn. Competition 2

On the left is a polo shirt logo the editor created some years ago as part of the "Speak Up For Freemasonry" campaign. Those of you who attended the Divisional Conference in 2017 in Auckland may have noticed. The shirt still gets outings even today.

This competition invites creative readers to design some possibly new or update logos that may be useful for your Lodge, your District, Division, Province and even to the top once we get back into action again.

Only one entry per person please and make sure that you include your real name, Lodge name and number, plus some information about your creation - what inspired you, what does it symbolise and so on.

We are not pushing a barrow for change of any existing logo's. It is here to allow those of you who are artists, to wile away a few hours and share your skills with the rest of us not so gifted.

Please observe the rulings of the Grand Lodge of New Zealand when you use the Square and Compasses in your design. The capital letter G is not permitted.

Email your creation to the editor and it will hopefully be published in this newsletter - time and space permitting. Anything deemed inappropriate will not be published. The Divisional Grand Master, RW Bro Michael Hattie will be the final arbiter if any decision needed.

Kia Kaha.
