Reports

The following reports were taken as read. Any additional comments made during the Business Session are noted below.

First Grand Principal (ME Comp Dennis Waller)

By conducting our business session by Zoom, we are allowing all Companions the opportunity to participate. At the same time, it allows us to create a more interesting and inclusive programme at our Convocation.

It has been my honour to serve as your First Grand Principal. The time has gone very quickly, and it is hard to believe it is two years since I was installed. In that time, I have had enjoyed tremendous support from Companions of all levels and met many wonderful people.

Visiting Chapters, both officially and unofficially, has been very enjoyable and I thank the First Principals of Chapters and Grand Superintendents for helping organise these visits.

One highlight worth mentioning was spending five days visiting Blenheim, Nelson, and Westport, well organised by RE Comp Ferg McNaughton and VE Comp Neville Hall GPA. I believe it is the first time all four Grand Principals have undertaken a tour like this. The visit generated a lot of enthusiasm and resulted in several new candidates, and particularly a renewal of interest in Kawatiri Chapter in Westport.

I attended two Heads of Orders' meetings in Australia. These meetings are held yearly for the heads of Royal Arch and associated Mark Lodges of the Australian Constitutions together with our own Grand Chapter. We will be hosting the next meeting in Hamilton at our Convocation. This is a great place to exchange ideas.

On a visit to England, I had meetings with both the second and third Grand Principals of the United Grand Lodge of England (UGLE) and senior members of the Metropolitan Grand Lodge of London. I attended a ceremony to exalt to the Royal Arch degree a Companion from Auckland's Chapter of Peace at his father's Chapter, and also a special meeting to demonstrate a play about the Royal Arch which is run in Lodges. The support and assistance of everyone there has been very much appreciated.

These visits and other Constitutions both overseas and in New Zealand have been very supportive in exchanging information and ideas.

Mentoring, education, and retention have been our highest priorities. We have produced new material to assist Master Masons understand more about the order, a booklet to assist with mentoring, booklets about each of our degrees, and one about the Order as a whole. These have been circulated to all current Companions and are available for new candidates as they complete their degrees. We have published the questions and answers for each of our degrees, in both the Royal Arch and Cryptic Council, in folders which have been circulated to all Chapters.

The introduction of regalia for the Excellent Master degree has been well received.

Surveys have shown that members of the Royal Arch are significant contributors to their Lodges and stay in the Craft longer. Hopefully the new material we have produced will assist us in gaining new members and keeping them, and in turn assist the craft retain members longer.

I have had the honour of presenting a number of service badges, bars, and certificates. It was a special pleasure to present VE Comp Don Carroll and VE Comp Geoff France each with an Order of Meritorious Service, and VE Comp John Francis with a First Grand Principal's award - awards well deserved for outstanding service to their Chapters and Districts.

While membership has decreased very slightly, there appears to be great enthusiasm in Chapters, which will undoubtedly lead to new members.

We have a constant battle to ensure Craft Brethren understand that, when they have completed their third degree, it is not the end of the journey. In other jurisdictions Brethren are told they have not completed their journey and that the Royal Arch is a critical part of Freemasonry.

UGLE has recognised the importance of the Royal Arch to the future of Freemasonry and has now included in the joining fee for craft candidates the joining fee for the Royal Arch. Members are told that they need to join the Royal Arch to complete their Masonic education.

I would like to thank the other Grand Principals (RE Comp Ferg McNaughton, RE Comp Greg Bennett, and RE Comp Dave Craddock) who have given me great support and worked tirelessly in their divisions. Their knowledge, wisdom, and input have been of great help.

Thank you also to the Grand Superintendents for your support and your work in your Districts. I have enjoyed your company when I have visited and appreciated the work you have put in. It is interesting how many variations of our "standard" ritual there are!

ME Comp Ron Lane, Chairman of the Management Council has been of great support. Your advice and wisdom have been most useful and appreciated. I owe a very special thanks to RE Comp David Ryan, our Grand Scribe Ezra, who has had the job of keeping me under control. He has been an editor par excellence in checking the various papers, booklets etc, and a font of knowledge. He has also been responsible for making sure Chapters get their reports and returns in. Often a thankless task.

Thanks also to our Trustees, Grand Registrar, Grand Treasurer, and members of our scholarship committees, who all do a great job behind the scenes.

I would also like to thank Grand Lodge for their support behind the scenes in areas such as the database, website, and providing us the opportunity to contribute regularly to the red pages in the Freemasons magazine. Thank you also to the Grand Master, MW Bro Jim Watt, for his personal support and encouragement.

A special thanks to my wife, Glenys, for her tremendous support, without which this job would have been very difficult.

ME Comp Dennis Waller
First Grand Principal

In additional comments, ME Comp Waller thanked those who had assisted him during his two-year term.

Depute First Grand Principal (RE Comp David Craddock)

As my term of office as Depute Grand Principal, and as such, Grand Principal for the Northern Division, draws to a close, I am pleased to report that the Division is progressing, all be it moderately.

All three Districts are admitting new candidates into our Order, some Chapters more than others but overall there has been very positive growth. Naturally, as our Order is made up of a majority of “older” Companions, this growth is slightly neutralised by the passing of some close and respected Companions. Such is Freemasonry today unfortunately.

The Northland District has made the emotional, but realistic, decision to merge with the Auckland District, an action that will be presented for ratification at Convocation 2025. Plans for this merger are well under way, and all should go seamlessly, thanks to a lot of hard work by a very few, with everything expected to be completed within the next few months. The new District team of Grand Chapter Officers for the new merged district are already making their plans for how they will all fit into their respective roles, and how travel to the far North will be actioned. I see this merger going smoothly and amicably with all the Companions from both the current Districts. My thanks to all those Companions involved with organising the Orewa Lodge rooms for the Mahurangi-Kaipara RAC and Cryptic Council move. There are still some minor tweaks to be sorted but the major items already covered are done.

The Auckland District, other than the aforementioned merger, is coping very well. It has not been the easiest of years for any of the Companions, especially following health issues for the Grand Superintendent, RE Comp Bob Thomson. The District was extremely lucky to have a capable and accommodating Companion, RE Comp Mike Downey, to fill the space that arose due to these health issues and the District is most grateful to RE Comp Downey for his services to the cause. It is most pleasing to see Bob on the road to recovery now, slow but steady steps. All the Chapters in this District have admitted at least one new Companion to our Order over the last year, so a steady growth is happening, all be it a slow one. The one daylight Chapter is growing in strength and being well received by all the Companions of the District. As with everywhere else in the country, some Chapters are doing better with growth than others, and the Cryptic Councils are still being led nationwide by the Ara Council, a Council that continues to grow and has the largest and most active membership nationally.

The Hauraki District tends to “just get on with it all”, and is continuing to progress steadily, with new admissions happening within most Chapters and Councils. The Ohinemuri Chapter, based in Whitianga on the Coromandel has been a struggle, its First Principal having some very severe health issues (thankfully, on the mend now), along with some other Companions of the Chapter. They, like all the Chapters of this District, have the full support of all the Companions of this District. By the time of reading this report, this Chapter should have had its Installation (that had been delayed for some time), as well as admitted one, possibly two, new Companions into our Order. Collectively, this District is very strong, with a strong union between the Companions and Chapters. This is seen when visiting Chapters, how Companions of “other” Chapters are getting actively involved with ceremonies, even if travelling involves long journeys to do so. There is a strong companionship of support to one another here in this District, and long may that continue.

I would like to thank all the Grand Superintendents in all three Districts, and indeed all the Companions of these Districts, for their friendship and the warmth of their respective welcomes. I have always felt at home, no matter where I visited, and enjoyed being with every one of you. I have learnt where Chapters that I have never been to, or heard of before, are, and meet some true Masonic Companions who live the ideals of our Order. It has been an absolute pleasure and honour to have been the Grand Principal for the Northern Division and I wish every success and the same warm companionship to our new Grand Principal for this Division, as I do for all the new Grand Chapter Officers of their respective Districts.

RE Comp David Craddock DGZ
Divisional Principal – Northern

Second Grand Principal – Central Division (RE Comp Greg Bennett)

I am writing to report on my tenure as Grand Haggai, which concluded at the end of my two-year term.

During my tenure, I have had the privilege of attending numerous installations and Mark Degree workings. I was honoured to represent the First Grand Principal at the welcome ceremony for new members to Royal Arch Freemasonry and present them with the booklet explaining the degree. The series of booklets explaining the Royal Arch Degrees have been well received and I expect they will advance the knowledge of the Companions. This has been a commendable initiative.

In August 2024, Jocelyn and I attended an installation with the First Grand Principal and other members of the Grand Chapter in Sydney. I have also represented the SGRACNZ at English Mark meetings in Palmerston North and will do so again in Napier in February 2025. Additionally, I participated in the Centenary celebration of the Scottish Constitution in Nelson with other Principals.

I would like to express my gratitude for the unwavering support and assistance I have received from Jocelyn. Without her help, I would not have been able to fulfil my responsibilities effectively.

I have also received great support from the Grand Superintendents of the Central Division who have, in turn, been supported by the Grand Chapter Officers. This collaborative effort has fostered a positive environment for the upcoming term, with enthusiastic members actively driving the Chapters forward.

This year has seen a significant increase in the number of new members joining most Chapters in the Central Division. While one Chapter has entered a state of dormancy, another Chapter is valiantly struggling to maintain its existence.

I trust that my successor as Grand Haggai will find his term as enjoyable as I have and will cherish the camaraderie among the members of the Management Council.

I extend my heartfelt appreciation for the experiences and support I have received during my tenure. I have expanded my professional network and developed valuable friendships.

I am looking forward to reconnecting with you all in Hamilton.

RE Comp Greg Bennett
Second Grand Principal, GH

Third Grand Principal – Southern Division (RE Comp Ferg McNaughton)

Time for the new broom! I've really enjoyed my term as Divisional Grand Principal and am quite happy with the direction in which the Division is moving. We've been fortunate to have had the First Grand Principal visit our Division on numerous occasions. Whether that's because he likes it down here or keeps coming down to check up on me, I don't know. That's opened to conjecture, but it's been very nice to have him regularly pop down.

Grand Chapter office is a responsibility and thought needs to be given when nominating Companions for positions. There are many forms of recognition available through Grand Scribe Ezra, and I personally would like to see more use made of these than someone nominated for a position they may not enjoy, struggle with, or indeed put them off attending all together. I've been very fortunate to have such a good group of District Superintendents supporting me in my term and I wish them all the best. Within the Chapters I have visited I have found overall the ritual to be delivered in a capable manner. Clarity is the key to understanding; understanding is the key to enjoyment.

Most of the Chapters have reported steady growth in membership. That's great but, once you have them, you need to keep them. There is a very good booklet available on mentoring which should be compulsory reading. Keep in mind that the most learned expert Companion may not make the best mentor, and each Chapter should have more than one. There has been a lot of material produced this year and it's all good stuff so make people aware of it and use it. The introduction of Excellent Degree regalia is a good step and does look very good.

I would like to say that I've really enjoyed my time on the Management Council, but that would be a lie. However, it has certainly been an education for me and I now have a greater appreciation of the important role that Management Council has to play in determining the future of Royal Arch Masonry. Not every decision made is an easy one and on some occasions the needs of the many leave the few or the individual feeling isolated and unsupported, but every decision is debated fully and always made with the best interests of the Order at heart.

Our relationship with Grand Lodge is still not ideal and I personally believe their actions are somewhat contrary to what gets said. However, that is just my opinion. I must acknowledge the work done by ME Comp Lane as Chairman of the Management Council, not an easy task, and the work put in by RE Comp David Ryan as Grand Scribe Ezra and RE Comp Paul Sargison as Grand Treasurer is huge. We are fortunate to have them where they are. I would like to thank ME Comp Waller RE Comp Craddock and Bennet for their friendship and support over the past two years. It has been a lot of fun, and I've enjoyed myself immensely. I would also like to acknowledge the work put in by RE Comp Companion Bob Wright as Grand Lecturer. Bob has phenomenal knowledge of Masonry and is always happy to share it. Finally, I must thank VE Comp Neville Hall GPA who has travelled most places with me, has always offered an opinion and has kept me on the straight and narrow. Thank you, Companions, for allowing me to serve as Divisional Grand Principal. I wish my successor RE Comp Ian Plummer all the best for his term and know that, if he has half as much fun as I've had, he'll have a good time.

RE Comp Ferg McNaughton
Third Grand Principal, GJ

Chairman of Management Council (ME Comp Ron Lane)

Companions all

This 2025 Annual Convocation will conclude my five-year association with Management Council, commenced in 2020 when I first sat in the Council as an entitlement of the GZ-elect. There followed a two-year term as First Grand Principal and an additional two more years as the Chairman of Management Council.

The Royal Arch differs from the Craft in that the immediate Past First Grand Principal automatically proceeds to chair Management Council during the full two-year term of his successor. It is a system which works well for our Order and ensures that the operational knowledge accrued while serving as GZ not only offers managerial continuity but can also be usefully employed for the superintendence and administrative benefit of our Royal Arch activity. Other members of Management Council include the First Grand Principal, three Divisional Grand Principals (DGZ, GH, GJ), Grand Scribe Ezra, Grand Treasurer, and the Grand Registrar when needed.

Since Proclamation last year, Management Council has met four times using the Zoom platform and significant cost savings have been achieved as a result. Further savings were achieved through your adoption of the Management Council-sponsored remit which removed the requirement for the Chairman to attend the annual heads of orders' (HOO) meeting which is hosted by each Australasian Royal Arch jurisdiction on a cyclical basis. Our representatives are now limited to two, being the First Grand Principal, with either Grand Scribe Ezra or the First Grand Principal-elect in alternate years. New Zealand will host the 2025 HOO meeting this year and we may expect a strong Hamilton attendance from our Australian Companions.

The strong leadership of our First Grand Principal, ME Comp Dennis Waller, and Divisional Grand Principals RE Comp David Craddock DGZ, Greg Bennett GH, and Ferg McNaughton GJ, coupled with the secretarial expertise of the Grand Scribe Ezra, RE Comp David Ryan, and financial proficiency of the Grand Treasurer, RE Comp Paul Sargison, has rendered my role throughout this year an enjoyable and relatively straightforward one, and I thank them all for their support, input, and contribution to the affairs of Management Council.

Management Council will next meet on the day preceding the 2025 Annual Convocation, after which the Chairman, DGZ, GH, and GJ will officially retire and be replaced by those being Installed. ME Comp Waller will succeed me as Chairman, and the offices of GZ, DGZ, GH, and GJ will be filled respectively by a team of very experienced Companions: ME Comp Ken Burt and RE Comp Greg Bennett, Ian Plummer, and Michael Downey. The Grand Scribe Ezra, Grand Treasurer, and Grand Registrar continue in office. We wish them every success for the duration of their terms.

Each Management Council member is required to submit an annual report at Convocation and these have been distributed to you for perusal and consideration six weeks prior to the date of our Business Session. Each is detailed and there is no need for me to reiterate their content. Annual Reports are also prepared and presented by the Trustees, and Chairmen of the Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Fund and the Royal Arch Masonic Centennial Award Fund respectively. These two committees administer our two main charitable funds and I thank them for the voluntary work they do so willingly and capably on our behalf. An objective perusal of these several reports will ensure every interested Companion has an overall understanding of today's Royal Arch activity and status under the administration of your management team. I do encourage you to read these reports prior to the Business Session, which materially differs from previous years in that it will be held by Zoom at 10am on Sunday, 23 February 2025. In the past, attendance outside each Division has been decidedly moderate, primarily due to distance and cost. It is hoped that this opportunity for all Companions to share in the business deliberations of Grand Chapter will result in increased participation.

Often overlooked, I also wish to acknowledge the valuable work of the Ritual Committee chaired by RE Comp Ken Burt and assisted by RE Comp Bob Wright and VE Comp Roger Carson in terms of updating the ritual and ensuring a standardised version across Chapters.

The usual three-monthly MS Teams liaison meetings between the Chairman, GZ, and GSE with the Grand Master and Grand Secretary to discuss items of mutual Craft/Royal Arch interest have been deferred this year while the Craft All-of-Governance Review has been conducted. We see these meetings as crucial to our common objective of strengthening the bonds between us and working together to retain the interest and cement the membership of our newer Master Masons.

I also acknowledge our appreciation of the support received from Freemasons New Zealand in accessing contact information for those Master Masons who have been raised for 12 months or more. The opportunity to introduce these men to the final three of our six-degree system has proven to rekindle interest and cement their membership for the mutual benefit of both the Craft and Royal Arch. We also appreciate the sponsorship of Grand Lodge in providing us a two-page spread in each quarterly issue of the Freemasons magazine, which enables us to report on Royal Arch activity and convey our message to every Mason in New Zealand.

Finally, it has been a privilege and pleasure to serve our Order as Chairman of Management Council over the past two years and I do look forward to being of further assistance in the future. My warm regards to you all.

ME Comp Ron Lane
Chairman of Management Council

Grand Treasurer (RE Comp Paul Sargison)

Most Excellent and Companions, it is my pleasure to present the Grand Chapter, Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Fund, and Centennial Award Fund financial statements for the year ended, and as at the 30th of June 2024. The accounts have been reviewed by Excellent Companion Warren Cant, whose unqualified review reports are attached.

Grand Chapter

There was an operating surplus for the 2024 year of $15,341 compared to a budgeted surplus of $1,474. The main areas where savings/gains were achieved were:

- Management Council meetings $2,723,
- Convocation $2,531,
- Printing costs $2,377 and
- Interest received $5,456 higher than budget due to the raised Official Cash Rate

These were somewhat offset by the following increased expenditure/revenue losses:

- Cost of goods for sale $2,211,
- Taxation $998 and
- Chapter levies $2,096

Referring to the Balance Sheet, the Accumulated Funds have increased by $15,342 to $208,007, as a result of the surplus for the year.

Budget for 2026

The 2026 budget shows a projected surplus for the year of $6,436, depending on future interest rates. It is recommended that the annual administration fee remain at $52 per member.

Moved by RE Comp Paul Sargison that the administration fee for 2025/26 remain at $52 per member, seconded by ME Comp Ron Lane

Carried

Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Fund

The 2024 accounts disclose a surplus of $17,530, which compares with a surplus of $45,175 from the previous year. This reduction was largely due to the decrease in the value of investment assets, being $17,117 for the year, compared to the prior year's increase of $12,703. Scholarships totalling $33,500 were paid during the year. Members' contributions increased by $2,163 compared with the previous year. Members' contributions for the last five years have been:

2024	$11,325
2023	$9,162
2022	$5,781
2021	$9,924
2020	$10,857

Accumulated Funds at $623,670, show a decrease of $10,970 for the year, an effective annual rate of 1.7%. The funds available for grants at the close of the 2024 year amounted to $30,265, a decrease of $4,489 over the year.

Centennial Award Fund

The 2024 accounts disclose a surplus of $1,100, compared with the surplus of $33,528 in the 2023 year. The major contribution was the decrease in the value of investments held of $20,876, compared to the increase of $12,838 in the previous year. There were no grants paid during the year. The funds available for future grant payments amount to $47,041 at the end of the 2024 financial year, an increase of $10,988 from the previous year. There are no new commitments for grants at the time of preparing this report. Total capital funds at balance date were $531,754, an increase of $1,099 over the year, an effective annual rate of 0.2%.

Accounts reviewer

Moved by ME Comp Graeme Pengelly that, in accordance with rule 5.3(c) of the Book of Constitution and Laws, E Comp Warren Cant be appointed as Reviewer for the 2024/25 financial year, seconded by ME Comp Eoin Dryden

Trustees of Grand Chapter re financial performance (VE Comp Ray Burgess)

Trustees for the year to 30 June 2024: ME Comp B Hebbard, RE Comp J Heron, VE Comp R Burgess

The financial accounts have been prepared by the Grand Treasurer, RE Comp Paul Sargison, and reviewed by Warren Cant CA. We sincerely acknowledge the recent retirement as Trustee of Jim Heron on 15 October 2024 and the many years of valuable service he has given in the faithful discharge of his duties.

Trustees' report on the financial performance of the Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Fund for the year ended 30 June 2024

The 2024 financial accounts show a surplus of $17,530 (2023 year $45,175). This was largely due to the decrease in value of the investment portfolio, down $17,117 compared with the 2023 year increase of $12,703.

We are pleased to report that scholarship grants totalling $33,500 were made during the year, compared with $32,000 paid in 2023. Companions' contributions increased by $2,163 to a total of $11,325. Contributions for the past five years are:

2020	$10,857
2021	$9,924
2022	$5,781
2023	$9,162
2024	$11,325

The portfolio is managed by JB Were and comprises a mix of listed company shares. The market has been notably volatile over the past 12 months, which naturally reflects on our main asset values at any particular date. A current update will be advised at the Business Session meeting in February 2025.

Trustees' report on the financial performance of the Centennial Award Fund for the year ended 30 June 2024

The 2024 financial accounts show a surplus of $1,100 compared with a surplus of $33,528 in the previous year. This was largely due to the decrease in portfolio value of $18,613 compared with an increase of $13,838 in the previous year. Accordingly, no grants were paid during this financial year.

Total funds available for future grants amount to $47,041 at 30 June 2024, an increase of $10,988 from the previous year. There are no current grant commitments at the time of preparing this report.

Total capital funds at balance date were $531,754, an increase of $1,100 over the year. The portfolio is managed by JB Were and comprises a mix of listed company shares. The market has been notably volatile over the past 12 months, which naturally reflects on our main asset values at any particular date.

Ray Burgess
Chair of Trustees

In additional comments, VE Comp Burgess thanked RE Comp Jim Heron for his contribution as trustee. He also mentioned that, despite market volatility, funds were constantly monitored and their value had been maintained. The closing balance for the Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Fund, as of a few days before the meeting, was $656,000.

Grand Scribe Ezra (RE Comp David Ryan)

General comment

It has again been a pleasure during the year dealing with Scribes, Recorders, and others, and I feel that I have got to know many of you well through e-mail.

Jubilee Memorial Scholarship collections

Not all Chapters and Councils are collecting donations for the Jubilee Memorial Scholarship at their Installation meetings or, if they are, they are not forwarding the donations to Grand Chapter.

Letters to Master Masons

Below are statistics on letters sent out to Master Masons, ie in line with our agreement with Grand Lodge we are able to write to Master Masons 12 months after they have done their Third Degree asking if they are interested in joining Royal Arch.

Quarter when raised to Third Degree (2023)	Total eligible	No longer member of Craft	Overseas addresses or address not known	Already joined or about to join	Letters sent	Mail returned
1 Jan – 31 Mar	50	2	2	1	45	4
1 Apr – 30 Jun	49		3	2	44	3
1 Jul – 30 Sep	60	2	1	6	51	3
1 Oct – 31 Dec	42	2		4	36
TOTAL	201	6	6	13	176	10

I have some doubts about the results that we achieve with these letters. When I see names of new members coming through I recognise some names from letters sent, but it would seem, based on a purely subjective assessment, that most people join the Royal Arch after spending more time in the Craft. Nevertheless, an approach from us now can plant the seed which may then grow into interest at a later date.

Certificates

I encourage more Chapters and Councils to request certificates for their members. The cost is low (only $10 per certificate, or $25 for Royal Arch certificates – including postage).

Below are figures on certificates issued since Convocation 2023 to Convocation 2024, and a comparison with recent years.

Jewels

I now have a system whereby I can identify those who are entitled to receive a jewel for their 40 years' service but I can't do the same for 5-year bars. Chapters ought to be able to check their records fairly easily.

Membership

Our membership has remained relatively stable, although it was disappointing that Bedford Chapter in Hawkes Bay has recently handed in its charter. Some members have since joined other Chapters. However, there has been a net loss of five members from Royal Arch as a result of the Chapter closure. Some Chapters around the country have a waiting list for new members, while others are struggling to attract and retain members. I encourage Grand Superintendents to work with the Chapters in their Districts to find a way to pass on learnings from those Chapters that are doing well.

During 2023/24 (excluding dual members who belong to more than one Chapter):

- 16 Chapters reported an increase in their membership
- 5 Chapters reported no change
- 19 Chapters reported a decrease

However, many of the changes were very small. Nevertheless, lessons can be learned from some Chapters that experienced sizeable membership growth.

In summary, as at 30 June:

	Chapters			Councils

[^] Adjusted from a reported 776 in previous year

[#] Adjusted from a reported 778 in previous year

^{*} Adjusted from a reported 859 in previous year

The numbers are quite dramatic when we consider that our total membership in Chapters has halved in the last 12 years, and this change has also had a flow-on effect on Cryptic Council membership. Nevertheless, at least in the last couple of years the rate of decrease appears to have slowed. Analysis of the figures shows constantly that resignations represent the majority of member losses and, while some of those resignations may be due to ill health or departures overseas, Chapters need to consider if they can address other reasons for which members resign.

RE Comp David Ryan

Grand Scribe Ezra

In additional comments, RE Comp Ryan reiterated that some Chapters and Councils are not making contributions towards the Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Fund, while some Chapters have been slow in making their capitation payments. ME Comp Waller added that membership had maintained stable and stressed the importance of providing information to Grand Scribe Ezra to maintain updated membership records.

Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Council (RE Comp Alan Hart, Chair)

Firstly, may we again express our appreciation to Chapters/Councils and Companions generally for their ongoing support for the awards not only through their ongoing donations but also in identifying and supporting deserving students.

General comments

This was the first year in which our income through the variation of the capitalisation of interest and dividends came into effect. This change from the previous 10% to the new 50% had a material impact on the sums available to us for awards and we would ask that Management Council gives further consideration to this impact especially in the light of reduction of membership.

The scholarship account itself received $25,208 towards funds available for consideration of this year's grants but awarded $28,500 in total. A grant previously made was also returned as the student was unable to take up their proposed course of study, which was a reminder that we at all levels need to retain contact with applicants to ensure they undertake their course and our funds have assisted them as intended.

Consideration

As with last year, in view of the number of applications (20) as well as the plethora of supporting material received, we created a template summarising each application in order that a consistent approach could be followed. We contacted either the relevant Grand Superintendent or a local contact in most areas to clarify some aspect of most applications which, while time-consuming, did give us a greater understanding of the context of the application and student's situation.

Again, as with last year, we felt it appropriate to exclude those who had previously been supported while several applications were outside our ambit or were looking at higher levels of study. For several others it was felt that other avenues of Masonic support could be available. In this regard we were delighted to see recently the announcement that Freemasons New Zealand are offering a scholarship in paramedic studies at polytechnic.

We have heard the clear expression from Companions that some weight be given to other than pure academic successes to date. That said, all applicants demonstrated a high level of scholastic ability in their school results and most seemed well equipped to proceed to the next level of study. However, it was clear that equally most of the applicants were themselves or in their family circumstances adversely affected by health or other issues including the early death of a parent. To all of those we commend their need for support to Companions and other Masons around them.

You may recall that last year we asked that the following be covered by the student, Chapter or Grand Superintendent:

- Why this student should be assisted?
- How any grant made will benefit them?
- How will that benefit the country/society?
- What will happen if we do not make the award to them?
- What is their real/full income and expenditures relative to their studies?
- If they are living away from the family home some indication of why might assist
- Any Masonic connection – not essential but an indicator.

What was clear this year is that many of the students took a long hard look at the realities of tertiary study when these issues were raised with them. Perhaps as with youth of all ages now and in past years there is some naivety in how much tertiary studies cost and how these can be funded. We invite you to do as we did and check not only course costs for academic and/or trade-based studies but then add in the living and accommodation costs and you will see how easy it is for a student to expend in the tens of thousands of dollars to advance their education often through taking on significant debt.

After our considerations the following were advised to the Grand Scribe Ezra and in turn by him to Grand Superintendents. The associated payments are made separately by the Grand Treasurer and we trust that suitable presentations of the certificates will be made locally as circumstances might best suit. We encourage Chapters/Councils to retain contact with the awardees and take an active interest in their studies.

Named awards

In previous years these were allocated on an additional basis as outlined in the rationale provided last year for the main rule changes but no longer come into consideration.

Future awards

Indications from the Grand Treasurer are that funds available for awards for future grant rounds could remain dramatically limited.

Allied to this and what seems to be a softening in the interest/dividend rate environment indicates that with our numbers continuing to reduce impacting on collections than this will be reflected in awards made. The change in the Annual Convocation/Grand Installation being separated from the Business Session of Grand Chapter has an unintended consequence that the usual collection held at that time will not occur.

Can we all encourage use of the QR code arranged and distributed last year as one way of direct giving? Tax receipts are issued directly from that system.

Proposed changes to the rules

As always occurs after changes are made to Rules such as those governing this Fund, those which were adopted last year suggest that some further “tweaking” becomes apparent to achieve the original aim! Re possible rule changes:

1. In rule 8 (i) insert “or be in their final year” between the words completed and secondary school
2. In rule 11 delete all the words from “for the sake --- to end “situations.

Both suggested changes would then allow more flexibility as to dates involved such as with the one received very slightly late this time which we agreed to consider.

While mainly semantics, the current rule 8 could be construed to be in conflict with applications being sought before students have completed their secondary studies.

We commend these suggested changes to a favourable consideration by Companions.

Summary

It was personally rewarding to us as a committee to receive several items of feedback from awardees either from last year’s awards or earlier ones and to see the positive impact these scholarships had made. Several of these items found their way into the “red pages” of the Freemasons magazine for which our thanks to the editor of that publication.

Finally, from the current members of our small committee, RE Comp Bob Monson and Paul Johnston and myself, a sincere “thank you”.

Yours fraternally

RE Comp Alan Hart
Chair, Jubilee Memorial Scholarship Council

In additional comments, RE Comp Hart noted that half of returns are capitalised and the other half available for distribution as scholarships. It is anticipated that approximately $25,000 will be available for scholarships after the end of the current financial year (30 June).

Centennial Award Committee (ME Comp Geoff Davies GPA, Chair)

It is a pleasure to report that the Committee has recently made an award for 2025-26 to Dr Felix Bird, now an ophthalmology registrar at Hawke’s Bay Fallen Soldiers’ Memorial Hospital in Hastings, of $30,000 over two years. Dr Bird’s proposal was a clear winner of the proposals considered.

Dr Bird’s research is a project of the University of Otago’s Dunedin Multidisciplinary Health and Development Study, commonly referred to as the Dunedin Study. It is, to quote its website (<https://dunedinstudy.otago.ac.nz/>) “an ongoing, longitudinal study of the health, development and well-being of a general sample of New Zealanders. They were studied at birth (1972-73), and followed up and assessed at the age of three when the longitudinal study was established. Since then they have been assessed every two years until the age of 15, then at ages 18 (1990-91), 21 (1993-94), 26 (1998-99), 32 (2003-2005), and 38 (2010-2012). The Study members have recently been assessed at age 45 (2017-2019) and it is hoped to continue further assessments in the future.”

The study marked 50 years of work and contributions to society in 2023, and Governor-General Dame Cindy Kiro was guest of honour at a function at the university to mark the occasion. She said that the study has been described as the broadest and most in-depth study of human beings ever conducted:

For 50 years, it has been providing us with profound insights into the question of why we become who we are.

The University of Otago, and all New Zealanders can be immensely proud of the Dunedin Study. And while 50 is the number we are celebrating, perhaps just as worthy of celebration is 94 – which represents the percentage of original study members still participating, these 50 years later.

That figure represents perhaps the most extraordinary achievement of all and is one of the many reasons – along with rigorous research methods and multi-disciplinary approach – that the Dunedin Study remains the worldwide benchmark for a longitudinal study of this kind.

Dr Bird was nominated for the Centennial Award by the Principal Investigator for Vision in the Dunedin Study team, Gisborne ophthalmologist Dr Graham Wilson, who is an Honorary Clinical Associate Professor at Otago University, and is supervising the Award research. Introducing the project to the Committee, he said:

The Dunedin Study has positioned itself as the world leading study on ageing. What is especially novel is that the Study is assessing ageing while the cohort is in midlife, not when they are already aged. In addition to a unique 19 measures of ageing collected over two decades, we now have DunedinPACE (pace of ageing computed in the epigenome estimated from a simple blood test or buccal swab) and MRI-generated brain age.

Everybody wants to live to a ripe old age. But what is more important is how we can add good health to those years – that's healthspan. In many countries around the world, there is a significant gap between lifespan and healthspan. The Dunedin Study focus is addressing that gap – expanding healthy lifespan for all. And could the macular which is cheaply, easily, and non-invasively imaged be the window to the soul to ageing and provide us with the opportunity to improve healthspan?

Our Vision team seek to explore this question, further utilising measures from phase 52 (age 52) of the Dunedin Study which began on April 8 2024, and will continue for approximately 18 months. We hypothesise that macular drusen at age 52 are indicative of advanced biological ageing.

Dr Bird's own research is already in progress, and as referenced by Dr Wilson, investigates whether the presence of macular drusen (pathological collections of lipid and proteins within the back of the eye) in mid life are an indicator of accelerated biological ageing. By identifying macular change, and interpreting this alongside established ageing measures (some of which are unique to the Dunedin Study) it will be possible to identify macular biomarkers of ageing. Ultimately, it will provide a method of intervening in disease progression at a much earlier stage and improve health outcomes for patients. His proposal in part states:

I was fortunate to have an upbringing in regional Manawatu. This has given me a great understanding of small communities and how they are critical to New Zealand. It also highlighted to me the inequity in regional health provision. After graduation from Otago Medical School (2021) I moved to Gisborne and rotated through a number of junior and registrar roles both in the hospital and community. It was here my interest in ophthalmology was founded and I have since made a commitment to specialist training in this field.

This research project is of interest to me because there is real potential to improve patient outcomes. If macular change is found to be a reliable indicator of biological ageing, then it provides a cost-effective and accessible means for identifying pathological ageing which we can act on. It is these mechanisms that will have great benefit for regional and urban populations of New Zealand. We are fortunate enough to have access to advanced ocular imaging techniques, and alongside the ability to assess ageing during mid-life as opposed to retrospectively (thanks to the Dunedin Study), it is likely to obtain meaningful results.

There is great support and educational opportunity in this field within New Zealand. However, there are also excellent learning opportunities available internationally that would contribute to my personal development and to the execution of this study. Moorfields Eye Hospital in London (a world leader in eye care and ophthalmology research) where I have spent some time in 2024, has courses providing up-to-date overviews of retinal disease, macular assessment and fundoscopic training. The University of Sydney holds an annual Microsurgical Skills course which develops foundational skills in periocular, and anterior segment (front of the eye) surgical procedures, skills which are paramount in any ophthalmologist's career; and the Royal Australia and New Zealand College of Ophthalmologists) have a number of annual conferences.

In summary, your support and funding would be enabling access to internationally-recognised educational opportunities which will benefit my clinical practice in New Zealand for the entirety of my career. You would also be contributing to the completion of this proposed research. Once finished, we would submit our research article to a relevant ophthalmology journal and add to the body of research in this area. As previously mentioned, positive study results could have real benefit in early identification and treatment of age-related disease. Finally, we would be grateful for the opportunity to present our findings (as well as a recount of conferences and courses attended abroad) to you in person.

It was the Committee's unanimous view that Dr Bird's research more than met the criteria for an Award, and that the nature of his work and the intended outcomes are an excellent fit for us, given the relevant demographics.

Arrangements are in hand to make a formal announcement of the Award at Convocation and for Dr Bird to address all attendees early in the Convocation weekend, by which time I expect to have further detail of how the Award funds will be applied. He is likely to also attend some of the other sessions, to enable us to get to know him and his work a little better than has normally been the case with our awardees, and for him to know and understand our Order better too. The latter will assist in achieving public profile for what we are investing in Dr Bird and his research, which is a goal of the Committee for this Award.

In conclusion, I thank my fellow members of the Centennial Award Committee, RE Comp Bob Monson and VE Comp Geoff Todd, for their engagement and, as a committee, we especially thank the Grand Treasurer, RE Comp Paul Sargison, for his invaluable (and ongoing) assistance.

I also thank my predecessor, VE Comp Glenn Summerhayes, who first identified this project as worthy and important research from which a suitable candidate for the Award could be identified.

Proposed amendments to the Book of Constitution and Laws

Proposed changes to current rules are highlighted/struck out with an explanation for each change below.

Proposed change 1

GOVERNANCE

5.1 DIVISIONS AND DISTRICTS

- (a) For administrative and other purposes, New Zealand shall be divided into three Divisions with Districts as follows:
 - (i) Northern Division — ~~Northland~~, Northland/Auckland and Hauraki Districts,
 - (ii) Central Division — Hawkes Bay, Ruapehu/Taranaki and Wellington Districts,
 - (iii) Southern Division — Nelson/Marlborough/Westland, Canterbury, and Otago/Southland Districts.
- (b) The boundaries of the respective Districts shall be as recognised on 1st April 1992 except that the Auckland and Northland and the Otago and Southland Districts are now amalgamated.

The merger of the Auckland and Northland Districts is proposed to reflect the location of one Chapter in Northland and eight Chapters in Auckland and the difficulty at times to provide sufficient Grand Chapter officers in the Northland District. Roading improvements in the Northland region will make travel from Auckland easier.

Moved by ME Comp Dennis Waller, seconded by RE Comp Paul Sargison

Proposed changes 2 and 3

APPENDIX F RULES GOVERNING JUBILEE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

- 8 (c) Applicants for scholarships must:

- (i) have a good academic record having completed or be in their final year at secondary school or college and be progressing to further tertiary education or training; and
- 11 Application for a Scholarship shall be made in the manner advised from time to time by the GSE reflecting the use of appropriate application methodologies similar to other charitable grants. ~~For the sake of clarity, applications shall close with Grand Superintendents on 31 August annually and must be transmitted by them to the GSE no later than 15 September annually for consideration by the Scholarship Council. Payments of any awards granted shall be made in December with presentations of appropriate documentary evidence of the award being made as best suits the local situations.~~

The proposed rule change to rule 8(c) clarifies current practice whereby an applicant can be in his/her final year at secondary school intending to carry onto tertiary study in the following year. The proposed deletion in rule 11 provides flexibility around the application process and timing.
