

Guide For Trustees

You have been appointed a Trustee of your Lodge. You're honoured to have been asked and to contribute but where do you find out what you're meant to do.

What does a Lodge Trustee need to know? Do you have any liability if it all goes wrong?

The GLNZ office has compiled an explanatory note to answer those questions and others titled:

What does a Lodge Trustee need to know.....?

It is directed at providing some high level commentary to assist lodges and trustees to better understand the role and risks of a lodge trustee. As every lodge operates in a different way, the comments have to be general in nature however if lodges have specific questions or issues, then the guide provides a point of contact.

To obtain a copy email secretary@freemasons.co.nz or download from the members section of the Grand Lodge website.

