Mentoring Books

At each of the three Divisional Conferences the National Education Committee will launch the second edition of the Mentoring books along with a DVD of the Mentoring process. A pack of the new books will be available for each lodge to take away, and give to their Lodge Education Officer.

The new books are fine-tuned to the New Zealand Ritual and Book of Constitution and the Entered Apprentice and Fellow Craft books have the 1st and 2nd degree Rituals included (2010 version) together with the Test Questions.

After Conference, lodges may apply to either their District Education Officer or to Head Office for further supplies.

It will be really valuable for any brother involved with the Education process to come to Conference, see the DVD and see the books as well as swapping Mentoring experiences with each other.

Thank you.

St. John Ambulance Craftsmen Association

Mike Kendrick, Dist GM Ruapehu Dist No. 15 is desirous of forming a St. John Ambulance Craftsmen association.

Any Brethren who have such an interest may contact Mike Kendrick via email at: mmk@xtra.co.nz

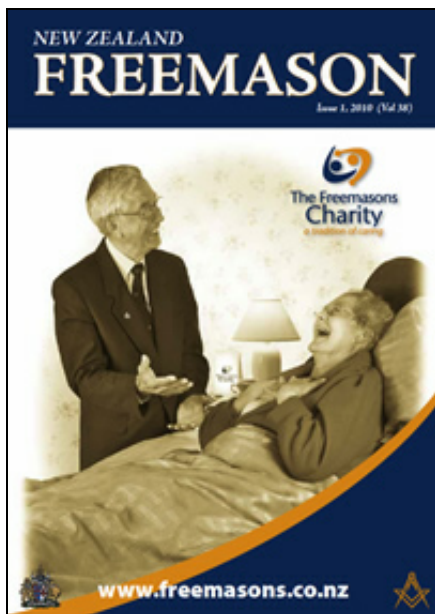

New Brochures

As you have noticed, packaged together with our latest NZ Freemason magazine was the new Freemasons Charity brochure. Your Lodge Secretary was also sent a supply of the new Freemasons brochure as well. Ask him for some!

You can also download a PDF version of each brochure here:
